

EXPERIENCED

Senior Analyst, Emerging Risks

 Managed Risk  Dublin / Remote  Full Time  44-hrs p/w.

ABOUT OUR FIRM:

Inherent Risks is an integrated risk advisory, medical assistance and crisis management firm solving complex problems in challenging environments, enabling our clients to choose smarter, operate safer, respond faster and recover sooner.

JOB ROLE DESCRIPTION:

Due to the operational requirements of our firm, the ideal candidate will have former military experience in hostile environments, with corporate experience in an intelligence role, and recent demonstrated and verifiable knowledge and understanding of the global risks landscape as it pertains to business and pleasure travel.

You will have a positive and forward-thinking attitude, the capacity to work independently with minimum supervision, and the ability to collaborate as part of a close-knit team. You will be able to communicate effectively, show initiative, follow direction, and remove emotion with the understanding that tasks and initiatives are commercial requirements, and often client driven.

You'll have your own area of responsibility, but you will be happy to cover other areas of the team's work where necessary, both to support colleagues and expand your own skillset.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Spearhead the integration of a newly-developed travel risk intelligence and incident alerts platform.
- Monitor and analyse an emerging risk and trend system, with actionable reports, based on a specific set of parameters to match the strategic direction of the company.
- Complete meticulous and accurate horizon scanning of emerging geopolitical, health, natural hazards and other emergent threats facing clients and/or internal stakeholders.
- Monitor open source and mainstream media for critical incidents that may affect the company's clients and/or internal stakeholders.
- Provide timely and accurate reports upon request to clients and/or internal stakeholders.
- Maintain and develop a global network of OSINT and HUMINT sources.
- Gather statistics for record keeping process and provide reports as required.

HOURS:

- While Inherent Risks encourages an excellent work/life balance, you should be ready to work anti-social hours if required in times of crisis.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Fluent spoken and written English.
- Other languages are advantageous, but not essential.
- Bachelor's Degree in a related subject.
- Computer literacy, including familiarity with Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, Powerpoint).

SKILLS & KNOWLEDGE:

- Working knowledge and understanding of global risk maps.
- Experience conducting remote and on-the-ground country risk assessments.
- Horizon scanning for potential opportunities and threats.
- Strong organisational skills with an attention to detail.
- Ability to work under pressure in a close knit team.
- Excellent presentation skills.
- Experienced and skilled people manager.
- Positive, professional attitude.

EXPERIENCE:

- A minimum of five-years military experience, completing at least two operational tours in a recent theatre of operations, such as Iraq, Afghanistan or Sierra Leone.
- A minimum of three-years working in a similar role, with a recognised risk advisory, response firm, or NGO.

SALARY:

- For full-time roles, €40,000 EUR
- Additional Daily Rates when Deployed
